DISASTER WIDOWS 54 WOMEN AND LEAVES 135 CHILDREN FATHERLESS

Grimness of Recent Tragedy Just Beginning to Be Realized—Suffering Acute

NEED GREAT ALREADY

Some of Those Left Destitute Declared Not to Have Clothing in Which to Attend Funerals

The intensity of the suffering resulting from the awful mine catastrophe at the Cincinnati mine last Wednesday is just beginning to be realized. Through the disaster that might have been prevented but for somebody's carelessness approximately 54 women were made widows and 135 children were left fatherless, to say nothing of the aged mothers who lost in the sudden tragedy their sons who were their entire support.

At Courtney, at Finleyville, at Cincinnati Patch and at Monongahela, where the calamity has been most keenly felt, the suffering is acute. When death stalked soberly, striking down able bodies miners in their prime, it left poverty stricken families that will have to be cared for by the community.

Even this soon after the mine horror dire want has been felt. Clothing to wear in attending the funerals of their loved ones had to be provided, according to the story told by certain individuals acquainted with the situation.

The victims of the Cincinnati mine were in the majority men who were just in their prime. There were not many claimed as victims who had passed the half century mark. That means of the children left destitute most are very young.

Monongahela people are raising a fund for the sufferers, as is Charleroi. The Donora band is contemplating giving a benefit performance, money they raise to be added to the general fund. It is probable that a general relief committee, will be appointed soon to assume general charge of the collection and distribution of money and clothing.

The average number of children to a family left destitute is about three. In one family, however, there are 10 children. In two others there are six children and five and four children in still others.

BRICK LAYING BEGINS; SCHOOL PUPILS SING

High School and Eighth Grade Students Hold Patriotic Exercises at Scene of New Building Work

The laying of the first brick on the new $70,000 school building to be erected at the corner of Chest avenue and Sixth street was this morning greeted with patriotic songs by High school Eighth grade pupils of the Fifth street school. When the school session was called pupils to the number of about 200 adjourned to the scene of the building work. Prof. I. T. Daniel, music supervisor of the schools led in the exercises. "America" and "Star Spangled Banner" were sung with a spirit.

From this time forth brick laying will be hastened by the Hall Construction company, which has the contract. If the structure is completed by the beginning of next term as it is the intention to have it, haste will be necessary. But thoroughness of construction will not be sacrificed for haste. Providing the building is finished on time high school and the eighth grade will occupy it next year, leaving room for the lower grades in the various other buildings.

CELEBRATION IN 1918—PERHAPS

Speers Citizen Hopeful That Bridge and Road May Be Opened Then

To the Editor of the Charleroi Mail: Sir—Rumors have it that some preparations are already being made for a gigantic celebration at Speers and Belle Vernon and it seems that the date is practically agreed on if everything progresses in the future as it has in the past. It is known that some time during the summer of 1918 probably in August, the big celebration will take place. Belle Vernon having postponed its one hundredth anniversary until later, so as to combine the affair with the opening of the state road between Monessen and Belle Vernon, the state road between Charleroi and Speers, the reopening of the Speers-Belle Vernon bridge and the completion of the Panama canal. Later advices say that the committee is slow about announcing the exact date, owing to the fact that they have not learned sure whether the bridge will be completed by August 1 or August 15, 1918.

It seems that a Speers man has leased the Speers approach for a garden. The committee is not acquainted with the lease and cannot say whether or not it is leased for a term of years, but if it is, the celebration may necessarily have to be postponed until probably late in 1920. If this be true it may also include the second election to the Presidency of Wm. Jennings Bryan. In order that the celebration will not have to be put off later than 1920, a committee will soon wait on the state highway commissioner and ask that engineers be put on the Charleroi-Speers road, so no time will be lost in getting another survey after which work may begin if the next election goes the right way.

Hopeful.

NO RECEIPTS FOR RELIEF

Contributions Fall Shy Today—Monongahela Citizens Are Active

No further contributions are to be reported today to the fund being raised in Charleroi for the sufferers from the Cincinnati mine disaster. The total amount raised so far is $186.02.

Monongahela citizens have responded nobly to the call for help and in the short time that has intervened since the explosion have contributed over $1,000. There are many individual contributions to this fund, and the churches have donated liberally. The heaviest contributors at Monongahela were the three banks. Each gave $100. Arrangements are being made for a benefit there to be given by the Donora band.

AUCTION SALE IS SUCCESSFUL

The auction sale of the Willson plan of lots in North Belle Vernon last Friday and Saturday afternoon was a splendid success, notwithstanding the general predictions to the contrary. About 100 lots were sold for an aggregate sum of $10,000, and the buyers were all pleased with their purchases. The Willson plan had been plotted years ago, and all efforts to sell the lots failed until this occasion, when J. M. G. Brown of Morgantown, W. Va., came to the front and disposed of them in his inimitable manner. The actual selling time was four and one-half hours. The Willson lots lie right in the heart of the town, and will no doubt soon be covered with comfortable and cheerful houses.

Mr. Brown's rapid selling system always draws a crowd of eager buyers. He has had a half-dozen successful sales in this section of the valley within the past couple of years, and will sell the Eldora plan of lots on May 9 and 10.

SIGNS UP LAST MAN FOR TEAM

Bill Phillips Announces List of Indianapolis Federals

RECORDS ARE PRODUCED

With the opening of the Federal league season less than 10 days off, Manager Bill Phillips of the Indianapolis Federals has practically rounded up his team. Today he gave out his list of players. He says he may dispose of some, but not until the end of the training season. The following men have signed and reported for practice:

Catchers, Durell, Massing; pitchers, Bair, Cates, France, Reis, Kirsch, Sutherland, Swaney, Taylor, Beebe, Potter, Billiard; first base, Tiemyer and Swartling; second base, Vandagriff; shortstop, Scott; third base, Alcock; outfielders, Kaiser, "Dusty" Miller, M. Miller, Brown, Beswick.

Several of his players Manager Phillips secured from the Central and other high class leagues of the central and eastern states.

Massing, who will in all probability be the mainstay in the catching department played with Danville in the Three I league last year, and hit third with an average of .333. His fielding record placed him in eighth position. Durell comes from Pennsylvania.

Bair, pitcher, was in the Southern Association and Cates was one of the best hurlers with the Vancouver club of the Northwestern league. France twirled for Steubenville and Reis was a leader in the Central league. Kirsch is a former East Liverpool pitcher. Alex Sutherland is an East Pike Run township, Washington county product. Pat Swaney is from Monessen. Taylor, who looks good played with the Cincinnati Nationals and with Indianapolis. Beebe comes from the Western Canada league where in 1911 he made a wonderful record. Billiard played in the Central league last year and headed the pitchers. Potter comes from Uniontown where he played semi-professional ball. He is a chap that Connie Mack and other big leaguers sought.

Tiemyer is a Trenton, N. J. product. He batted at .35 last year, the same as the former Charleroiite, "Bob" Tarleton. Swartling, who was to have been stationed at first base is kept at home by the critical illness of his father and may be detained from reporting at all. Tiemyer was really signed for third base but being an all round infielder will be given the initial sack. Vandagriff comes from the Central league, where he batted close to .300 and won an equally good fielding record. Scott is from the same league. He was rated among the best third basemen in the league. Alcock was third best fielding third baseman in the Central circuit and a hard hitter.

For the outfielders Phillips has chosen an extremely good number. Kaiser's record has been given before. He spent the year of 1911 in the National league, with Chicago and Boston, and last year in the American Association. "Dusty" Miller played in the Western league, where he fielded well and hit at .280. Brown started last season in the United States league and finished in the Central.

INITIATIVE AND THE REFERENDUM PASSED

Prepare for Field Meet

Four High Schools Athletic Teams Are Getting in Shape for Event

Four Monongahela valley high school athletic teams, Monongahela, Charleroi, Monessen and Donora are rehearsing diligently for the annual field meet that will be held at Charleroi on May 17. Officials for the meet have not been selected, but college men from the University of Pittsburgh, Washington and Jefferson college and probably one or two other Western Pennsylvania schools will be asked to officiate. Clyde Haines, formerly of Waynesburg College is the coach for the Charleroi high school team. In the six years that field meets have been held, Charleroi high has won first place in all except one.

William Warrick of Gastonville, one of the last to be brought from the mine was identified by his wife. H. E. Holmes of Finleyville, colored, an aged miner who managed to escape from the mines has been looked for by the R & B company.

House Adopts Progressive Measure in Final Consideration

NOW GOES TO SENATE

Liquor Question Eliminated and the Recall is Entirely Left Out

Harrisburg, April 29—By a decisive vote the resolution to submit to the voters a constitutional amendment providing for the initiative and referendum passed the house. By an equally decisive vote the proposed amendment embodying the recall was defeated, the legislators who have violated their pre-election pledges no doubt realizing what might happen to them if the voters were given the privilege of discharging a hired man who refused to obey orders. The initiative and referendum bill now goes to the senate. An amendment, however, was slipped in to exempt the liquor question, and thus prevent the people from expressing themselves on that subject. The amendment was inserted by Representative Allen who added it without a meeting of the committee.

Some election bills have been unearthed from the senate, but as one of these is the vicious measure to restore the old ward heeler's power, the public is not much interested. Careful watch is being kept on the bill providing for the handing out of ballots in advance at the primary, and if there is any danger of it passing all the powers of the civic and other good government forces in the state will be invoked to prevent this backward step in our election laws.

The house again refused to pass the bill to repeal the prohibitory law of Midland, Beaver county. It was defeated once, and an effort to revive it was again voted down.

A number of unimportant bills passed the senate, but none of the important ones pledged by the parties before election have been brought up. It is stated that some of the reactionary senators are being lashed by the labor organizations in their districts who insist that the representatives who got their support on pledges to support certain labor bills make good.

The fluffy little freak was hatched recently and bids fair to become a goodly specimen of the feathered tribe of bipeds. MOTHERS' PENSIONS.

No more forcible argument in favor of the mothers' pension law that is before the legislature could be presented than the conditions created by the terrible mine explosion at Courtney. By this disaster approximately fifty-four wives are made widows and 135 children orphaned. As the men who lost their lives in the explosion
were for the most part in their working prime, the children are nearly all of tender age, and must be supported until they reach the employment age.
Few, if any, of the widows thus suddenly bereft are equal to the task of maintaining a home for, supporting
and sending to school the orphans,
and because of this inability is created the great class which Victor Hugo in his immortal work, "Les Miserables," (The Wretched) so vividly pictures, together with the wrongs
that society has done in creating those unfortunates.

As it is only by the work of these unfortunates who from time to time stain the entire trail of progress with their life-blood, it is only just that society affords them a comfortable degree of protection, in advance of the pitiable dole of the almshouse and poor board. This latter form of relief is afforded because of necessity —never as a just obligation—and is based on the least possible amount of relief that will just afford subsistance. In addition a public ward is an object of contumely, whose presence and obligation imposed is resented by the public who bears the expense.

It is to correct this false economic attitude toward the unfortunate that
the mothers' pension law is devised.
Every child has an inalienable right to be well born and well brought up,
and if the home maker is suddenly removed while out on the firing line
of duty, it is the duty of society to maintain that home until the children are self-supporting. This is considered better public policy, and is infinitely less costly to the taxpayers, than to let the children scatter,
be committed to institutions and farmed out generally, to the mercy of a mother's love and care. As it is from this great class of "the wretched" that vice and crime is generated,
which imposes one of the heaviest burdens upon society it is better public policy to remove the cause of what creates this condition. Hence the mothers' pension.

With the prompt passage of this law that is now pending in our legislature the widows and orphans of the Cincinnati mine victims would be assured of preserving their homes until the children can care for themselves and their mothers.

CONTINUOUS LEGISLATION

What is termed a plan to abolish
the legislature is to be submitted to the voters of California if a resolution just introduced for a constitutional amendment gets through, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch. This is to have an elective legislature of forty members, who sit permanently at a salary of $5,000 a year.

"The argument in support of it is that under the present system bills
are rushed through with imperfect consideration, but that where forty lawmakers had nothing else to do and all year to do it in they might be expected to study measures in detail and thrash out every phase before enacting them. Besides experience and practice would make them professionals and they would be less likely to commit the blunders so frequent among amateur lawmaking as-semblies."

This is the commission plan, which the public is beginning to more and more look upon with approval. In view of the experience of our own legislature, where hundreds of unimportant bills have been passed during the present session extending
over a period of nearly four months, with an organized effort on the part of the senate to prevent the passage of important bills, the commission form of government appeals most strongly. The trouble with representatives is that after solemnly pledging themselves they refuse to represent.

In all probability ten bills—possibly not that many—would cover all the necessary legislation which
the people demanded at the present term of the legislature. We're getting a lot of legislation we didn't want, and likely to get nothing that we do want.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Those Mexicans are persistent advertisers if anything. They have

The self conscious chap is the one that wears a straw hat before the season opens.

A Chicago man that is blind is said to be a remarkably skilled physician.
He may still be among the ordinary.

Speaking of peg trousers have you noticed the peg skirts?

To the man who isn't affected by the income tax this talk about its horror is amusing.

The Washington Observer remarks:
"The Kitchen Sink was not yet cold
and now comes the Banana Slide.
Let's have the How Wallow without delay and the list of sensuous and senseless dances will be complete."

California would get into a scrap with Japan and then try to get the rest of the United States to help her
out. It isn't worth it.

Dr. Friedman's tuberculosis cure is surely a success. He is to get $250,000 from the chief distributors and expects $2,000,000 of a royalty
the coming year.

If the House could only get the Senate mad the State might be saved after all. But exciting the latter out of its placidity is like trying to move to sudden action a deaf and dumb man by whispering in his ear that there is a fire four blocks distant.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A Pittsburgh man who is a member of the Mystic Shrine, attended a lodge meeting the other night. His small daughter watched him adjust his fez with wide-eyed awe, and then ran to discuss the matter with a playmate, the little daughter of a neighbor of her own age.

"My father's goin' away early tonight and he's goin' to wear his red
cap. That's the only hat he's goin'
to wear."

"Why ain't he goin' to wear his regular hat?"

"Well," and the small lady quite evidently was turning something over in her mind, "I suppose it's because papa expects it's going to be very warm where he's goin'." I heard him tell mamma that he was goin'
tonight and wouldn't be home till morning, and when mamma asked why it took so long he just said a lot of fellows were goin' to travel some-
and he expected that the sands would
be pretty hot."

Henry, the five-year-old son of a Monessen man, had two younger brothers. Henry's father had just moved, and was busy laying the kitchen linoleum. In order to facilitate the work he gave Henry the task of furnishing him with tacks.
The little fellow worked faithfully for half an hour. Suddenly, however, he turned to his father and
said:

"Papa you like me best, don't you?"

"O, I like all my boys," said the father.

"But don't you like me a little bit better than the others?" queried Henry.

"I like all my boys equally well,"
answered the father.

"Well, papa," said the lad, after a moment's reflection, "what's the use

and the strangest duel ever fought.
It is a great story of the underworld,
full of thrills from start to finish.

THIRTY-SEVEN BID FOR INSURANCE ON COUNTY BUILDINGS

Thirty-seven bids were made for the $760,000 insurance on the court house and jail and equipment when the time came for the question to be taken up by the county commissioners and Controller J. H. Moffitt Monday, this being the second time
the matter was up for decision. The commissioners had awarded the insurance early in the year, but when the question was raised by Agent John Murray, the controller notified
the commissioners that he would insist on advertisements being made for bids.

But three bids were received this time which are under the flat rate of $4 per $1,000 fixed by the board of underwriters for this (the middle) district. The cut rate bids were at the rate of $3.50 and $3.80 per $1-000, but some of them were from companies which the commissioners had formerly rejected.

Colin McF. Reed of Washington,
was the lowest bidder by reason of the fact he splits his bid for the $760,000 into three parts as follows:
$310,000 at $4, $115,000 at $3.50 and $335,000 at $3.80. W. G. Potter, the Washington agent bid on $35,000 of insurance at $3.50 and the Washington County Fire Insurance company on $50,000 at $3.50.

No agents outside of Washington bid below the $4 flat rate. The commissioner had not reached a decision on the question Monday night.

Several Charlevoix agents bid on the $4 or board rate. The insurance had been awarded at this rate when the question arose as to advertising for bids, and now it is stated that if the bids are accepted the agents who placed the insurance will charge for the time the policies were in force at the short term rate. This would cost about $128 and a question would arise who who would be responsible for this, the county of the commissioners, who failed to advertise for bids according to law.

The matter will probably be threshed out by the controller and the commissioners. As the latter have the right to reject any or all bids, it may be that they will not accept
any of the cut rate companies as the ones are called who do not belong to the middle department of the board of underwriters.

neither of the two bodies now at the
mortuary is his son.

One of the saddest scenes yet witnessed at the mortuary and one that caused even the most hardened spectator to turn away, occurred Monday, when 20-year-old Mary Halczyn, an Austrian girl entered to identify the body of her father, John Halczyn.

The girl had just arrived the day after the explosion from her home in Austria. She was taken in charge by the Austrian consul at Pittsburgh and brought to Monongahela Monday.
In the mortuary she was led to the casket in which rested the body of her father. On seeing the familiar face, she with a shriek half swooned. She refused to be led away from the casket. After she had been quieted she was cared for by friends who took her back to Pittsburgh. After attending the funeral in Monongahela of her father, she will begin a sorrowful journey back to Austria where her mother and the remainder of the family is.

Rev. John R. Burson went to Pittsburg today to visit Frank Arrison who is at a hospital there.

RENOVATE STORE TO HOLD OPENING

Preparations are under way at the store of P. Calistri on the corner of McKean avenue and Fourth street for an opening which will be held Wednesday of this week. The store remodeled and enlarged presents a beautiful appearance. On the afternoon and evening of Wednesday an orchestra will furnish music and souvenirs will be given.

At a cost of $6,000 a forty foot addition has been built to the rear of the Calistri store and new ice cream manufacturing machinery and a new bakery have been installed. The ice cream machinery is of the latest and most improved design, being of a kind that is not to be seen along the Monongahela valley. The bakery arrangements are perfect and will be most sanitary in character.

Enhancing the general beauty of the store a new front has been installed. The opening faces the corner. In arranging for the opening of Wednesday, which will be made a most auspicious event, Mr. and Mrs.
Calistri have decorated their store with palms and greens. Their ice cream parlor is at the back of their main store room. They will cater to the ice cream and soda water trade.

also act upon the liver.

"WON'T it be just fine, Billy, when we get this old, scratched nursery floor covered with glossy LAWRENCE PAINT?"

"Mother says the kids that scratched the floor should make it look nice again. That's why she bought LAWRENCE PAINT 'cause it's so easy to put on that we kids can do it."

"The LAWRENCE PAINT man says it is tough, too, and will look nice for years even though we play on it so hard."

"It is such a nice color that the nursery will always look clean and cheerful and Mother will be saved lots of work."

The Lawrence Kids are anxious to have all the little boys and girls in town draw their pictures. They are happy and they want all the other kids to be happy and you will be if you watch their antics every week. Paint their pictures and try to win a prize. The 10 and 11 Models of the Remington Typewriter

are Visible Writers—
and more.

These new Remington models supply visible writing under new conditions—without loss of efficiency.

To realize what this means—the combination of Remington strength with visible writing—note the type bars. Note them specially. See how they are hung in a double row. This gives room for the broad pivot bearings. Note the bar itself, the strong, rigid bar, the Remington bar you have always known, made from a steel drop forging. Compare this bar with the ordinary thin bar, stamped out of sheet steel, and you will understand one reason why the very name "Remington" stands for Strength and Reliability in a Typewriter.

Resting a Model.

Adolphe Menzel, the German painter, at one time was engaged on a work of mural decoration and kept a man posed in an exceedingly fatiguing position on a scaffold for two hours. The great painter worked away, heedless of his model's discomfort. Finally the victim called down, "Herr Professor, how about the recess?"

"Certainly, my dear sir. Come down right away and you shall have your recess."

As the model was descending from the scaffolding his limbs assumed a position which was one for which the artist had long been looking.

"Stop!" Menzel thundered. "Hold! Ah, fine! Keep that while I make a little sketch of it!"

The artist drew vigorously for half an hour, at the end of which he called out imperatively: "There, that will do for now. Get up on the scaffold again. We have had our recess."

Undetermined Joke.

"There's a crook gone to the island for ten days that I'll be looking for when he comes out," remarked a policeman on an east side post.

"Why?"

"Well, listen. I caught him trying a door on my beat the other night and took him in. He started to be nasty about it, and I swung my stick at him. Before I could land him one on the head he shouts out to me:

"Don't hit me! Look out! There's a dynamite stick in me pocket!"

"I stopped quick enough, all right, for, you see, I get all the blowing up I need at the station now and again. But listen. When that chap was searched at the station there wasn't a sign of dynamite on him.

"Who was the joke on? Never mind that. The question is, who will the joke be on? Just wait!"—New York Globe.

ORIENTALS APT PUPILS.

It Doesn't Take Them Long to Get the Swing of Our Ways.

About the time the Japanese or Siamese student at Harvard has come to know his way about the campus he has forgotten to prefix "honorable" to the names of professors, he remembers only dimly that he used to salaam to his elders, and he wears a cap with as careless grace and comfort as another freshman.

If six weeks will make such transformation in the oriental six months will so change him that even his father would have difficulty in recognizing him at first glance. And he can say, "You get me, Harold, don't you, old boy?" and "Let's beat it!" as readily as though he were Boston born.

A tutor over in Cambridge takes oriental students in charge as soon as they arrive at the university and instructs them in the ways and means of acquiring a working knowledge of English. It makes no difference whether the youngsters had any education in the English language or not before they left home.

The Chinese or the Japanese student, the tutor says, is invariably quick, determined and eager to learn. Also, according to this tutor, he uplearns a lot of oriental things.—Boston Herald

Laugh and Live Long.
It has been aptly said that there is not the remotest corner of the inlet of the minute blood vessels of the human body that does not feel some wavelet from the convulsions occasioned by good hearty laughter. The life principle of the central man is shaken to its innermost depths, sending new tides of life and strength to the surface, thus materially tending to insure good health to the persons who indulge therein. The blood moves more rapidly and conveys a different impression to all the organs of the body as it visits them on that particular mystic journey when the man is laughing from that conveyed at other times. For this reason every good, hearty laugh in which a person indulges tends to lengthen his life, conveying as it does new and distinct stimulus to the vital forces.

What Wellington Was Doing.
When Sir John Steell, the sculptor had the Iron Duke sitting for a statue he tried to induce him to look warlike. All his efforts were in vain, however, for Wellington seemed, judging by his face, never to have heard of Waterloo or Talavera. At last Sir John lost his patience. "As I am going to make this statue of your grace," he exclaimed, "can you not tell me what you were doing before say, the battle of Salamanca? Were you not galloping about the field, cheering on your men to deeds of valor by words and action?" "Bah!" said the duke in evident scorn. "If you really want to model me as I was on the morning of Salamanca, then do me crawling along a ditch on my stomach with a telescope in my hand!"

Grimness of Recent Tragedy Just Beginning to Be Realized-- Suffering Acute

Some of Those Left Destitute Declared Not to Have Clothing in Which to Attend Funerals

The intensity of the suffering resulting from the awful mine catastrophe at the Cincinnati mine last Wednesday is just beginning to be realized. Through the disaster that might have been prevented but for somebody's carelessness approximately 54 women were made widows and 135 children were left fatherless, to say nothing of the aged mothers who lost in the sudden tragedy their sons who were their entire support.

At Courtney, at Finleyville, at Cincinnati Patch and at Monongahela, where the calamity has been most keenly felt, the suffering is acute. When death stalked somberly, striking down able bodies miners in their prime, it left poverty stricken families that will have to be cared for by the community.

Even this soon after the mine horror dire want has been felt. Clothing to wear in attending the funerals of their loved ones had to be provided, according to the story told by certain individuals acquainted with the situation.

The victims of the Cincinnati mine were in the majority men who were just in their prime. There were not many claimed as victims who had passed the half century mark. That means of the children left destitute most are very young.

Monongahela people are raising a fund for the sufferers, as is Charleroi. The Donora band is contemplating giving a benefit performance, money they raise to be added to the general fund. It is probable that a general relief committee will be appointed soon to assume general charge of the collection and distribution of money and clothing.

The average number of children to a family left destitute is about three. In one family, however, there are 10 children. In two others there are six children and five and four children in still others.

High School and Eighth Grade Students Hold Patriotic Exercises at Scene of New Building Work

The laying of the first brick on the new $70,000 school building to be erected at the corner of Chest avenue and South street this morning contract. If the structure is completed by the end of the year, the building will be hastened by the Hall Construction company, which has the contract. The structure is being erected with patriotic songs by High School and Eighth grade pupils of the fifth street school. When the school session was called pupils to the number of about 200 adjourned to the scene of the building work. Prof. T. Daniel, music supervisor of the on time high school and the eighth schools led in the exercises. "America" and "Star Spangled Banner" were sung with a spirit.

Speers Citizen Hopeful That Bridge and Road May Be Opened Then

To the Editor of the Charleroi Mail:—Sir—Rumors have it that some preparations are already being made for a gigantic celebration at Speers and Belle Vernon and it seems that the date is practically agreed on if everything progresses in the future as it has in the past. It is known that some time during the summer of 1918 probably in August, the big celebration will take place. Belle Vernon having postponed its one hundredth anniversary until later, so as to combine the affair with the opening of the state road between Monessen and Belle Vernon, the state road between Charleroi and Speers, the reopening of the Speers-Belle Vernon bridge and the completion of the Panama canal. Later advices say that the committee is slow about announcing the exact date, owing to the fact that they have not learned sure whether the bridge will be completed by August 1 or August 15, 1918.

It seems that a Speers man has leased the Speers approach for a garden. The committee is not acquainted with the lease and cannot say whether or not it is leased for a term of years, but if it is, the celebration may necessarily have to be postponed until probably late in 1920. If this be true it may also include the second election to the Presidency of Wm. Jennings Bryan. In order that the celebration will not have to be put off later than 1920, a committee will soon wait on the state highway commissioner and ask that engineers be put on the Charleroi-Speers road, so no time will be lost in getting another survey after which work may begin if the next election goes the right way.

Hopeful.
Speers, April 28, 1913.

Contributions Fall Shy Today —Monongahela Citizens Are Active

No further contributions are to be reported today to the fund being raised in Charleroi for the sufferers from the Cincinnati mine disaster. The total amount raised so far is $136.02.

Monongahela citizens have responded nobly to the call for help and in the short time that has intervened since the explosion have contributed over $1,000. There are many individual contributions to this fund, and the churches have donated liberally. The heaviest contributors at Monongahela were the three banks. Each gave $100. Arrangements are being made for a benefit there to be given by the Donora band.

AUCTION SALE IS SUCCESSFUL

The auction sale of the Willson plan of lots in North Belle Vernon last Friday and Saturday afternoon was a splendid success, notwithstanding the general predictions to the contrary. About 100 lots were sold for an aggregate sum of $10,000, and the buyers were all pleased with their purchases. The Willson plan had been plotted years ago, and all efforts to sell the lots failed until this occasion, when J. M. G. Brown of Morgantown, W. Va. came to the front and disposed of them in his inimitable manner. The actual selling time was four and one-half hours. The Willson lots lie right in the heart of the town, and will no doubt soon be covered with comfortable and cheerful houses.

Mr. Brown's rapid selling system always draws a crowd of eager buyers. He has had a half-dozen successful sales in this section of the valley within the past couple of years, and will sell the Eldora plan of lots on May 9 and 10.

Bill Phillips Announces List of Indianapolis Federals

With the opening of the Federal league season less than 10 days off Manager Bill Phillips of the Indianapolis Federals has practically rounded up his team. Today he gave out his list of players. He says he may dispose of some, but not until the end of the training season. The following men have signed and reported for practice:

Catchers, Durrell, Massing, pitchers, Bair, Cates, France, Reis, Kirsch, Sutherland, Swaney, Taylor, Beebe, Potter, Billiard; first base, Tiemyer and Swartling; second base, Vandegrift; shortstop, Scott; third base, Alcock; outfielders, Kaiser, "Dusty" Miller, M. Miller, Brown, Beswick.

Several of his players Manager Phillips secured from the Central and other high class leagues of the central and eastern states.

Massing, who will in all probability be the mainstay in the catching department played with Danville in the Three I league last year, and hit third with an average of .338. His fielding record placed him in eight position. Durrell comes from Pennsylvania.

Bair, pitcher, was in the South-eastern Association and Cates was one of the best hurlers with the Vancouver club of the Northwestern league. France twirled for Steubenville and Reis was a leader in the Central league. Kirsch is a former East Liverpool pitcher. Alex Sutherland is an East Pike Run township, Washington county product. Pat Swaney is from Monessen. Taylor, who looks good played with the Cincinnati Nationals and with Indianapolis. Beebe comes from the Western Canada league where in 1911 he made a wonderful record. Billiard played in the Central league last year and headed the pitchers. Potter comes from Uniontown where he played semi-professional ball. He is a chap that Connie Mack and other big leaguers sought.

Tiemyer is a Trenton, N. J. product who batted at .30 last year, the same as the former Charleroi, "Bob" Tarleton. Swartling, who was to have been stationed at first base is kept at home by the critical illness of his father and may be detained from reporting at all. Tiemyer was really signed for third base but being an all round infielder will be given the initial sack. Vandagriff comes from the Central league, where he batted close to 300 and won an equally good fielding record. Scott is from the same league. He was rated among the best third basemen in the league. Alcock was third best fielding third baseman in the Central circuit and a hard hitter.

For the outfielders Phillips has chosen an extremely good number. Kaiser's record has been given before. He spent the year of 1911 in the National league, with Chicago and Boston, and last year in the American Association. "Dusty" Miller played in the Western league, where he fielded well and hit at .280. Brown started last season in the United States league and finished in the Central.

Prepare for Field Meet

Four High Schools Athletic Teams Are Getting in Shape for Event

Four Monongahela valley high school athletic teams, Monongahela, Unadilla, Monessen and Donora are preparing for the annual field meet that will be held at Charleroi, on May 17. Officials for the meet have not been selected, but college men from the University of Pittsburgh, Washington and Jefferson college and probably one or two other Western Pennsylvania schools will be asked to officiate. Clyde Haines, formerly of Waynesburg College is the coach for the Charleroi high school team. In the six years that field meets have been held, Charleroi high has won first place in all except one.

CORONER INSPECTS THE MINE

Party of Officials Mak-

Fated Workings

SAD SCENE WITNESSED

Coroner James T. Heffran with a party of officials that includes District Attorney Richard W. Miller, Assistant District Attorney Ferguson, President Van Bittner of District No. 5, F. P. Hanaway of District No. 1, Robert Galtens of Noblestown, a district organizer and Peter Quinn of Springfield, Ill., an international organizer are today going through the exploded Cincinnati mine. They carried for safety five electric lamps, that were manufactured in Charleroi by the R. & B. company.

All but two bodies have been identified at the Monongahela morgue. The two unidentified are headless. William Warrick of Gastonville, one of the last to be brought from the mine was identified by his wife. H. E. Holmes of Finleyville, colored, an aged miner who managed to escape from the mines has been located.

House Adopts Progressive Measure in Final Consideration

Liquor Question Eliminated and the Recall is Entire-

Harrisburg, April 29.—By a decisive vote the resolution to submit to the vote a constitutional amendment, providing for the initiative and referendum passed the house. By an equally decisive vote the proposed amendment embodying the recall was defeated. The legislators who have violated their pre-election pledges no doubt realizing what might happen to them if the voters were given the privilege of discharging a hired man who refused to obey orders. The initiative and referendum bill now goes to the senate. An amendment, however was slipped in to exempt the liquor question, and thus prevent the people from expressing themselves on that subject. The amendment was inserted by Representative Allen who added it without a meeting of the committee.

Some election bills have been unearthed from the senate, but as one of these is the vicious measure to restore the old ward heeler's power, the public is not much interested. Careful watch is being kept on the bill providing for the handing out of ballots in advance at the primary, and if there is any danger of it passing all the powers of the civic and other good government forces in the state will be invoked to prevent this backward step in our election laws.

The house again refused to pass the bill to repeal the prohibitory law of Midland, Beaver county. It was defeated once, and an effort to revive it was again voted down.

A number of unimportant bills passed the senate, but none of the important ones pledged by the parties before election have been brought up. It is stated that some of the reactionary senators are being lashed by the labor organizations in their districts who insist that the representatives who got their support on pledges to support certain labor bills make good.

MOTHERS' PENSIONS.

No more forcible argument in favor of the mothers' pension law than
is before the legislature could be presented than the conditions created by
the terrible mine explosion at Court-
ney. By this disaster approximately
fifty-four wives are made widows and 135 children orphaned. As the men
who lost their lives in the explosion
were for the most part in their working prime, the children are nearly all
until they reach the employment age.
Few, if any, of the widows thus sud-
maintaining a home for, supporting
and sending to school the orphans,
and because of this inability is created the great class which Victor Hu-
go in his immortal work, "Les Miserables," (The Wretched) so vividly
pictures, together with the wrongs
that society has done in creating those
unfortunates.

As it is only by the work of these
society affords them a comfortable
poor board. This latter form of relief is afforded because of necessity
based on the least possible amount of
relief that will just afford subsist-
ance. In addition a public ward is
an object of contumely, whose presence and obligation imposed is resented by the public who bears the expense.

attitude toward the unfortunate that
the mothers' pension law is devised.
Every child has an inalienable right
to be well born and well brought up,
and if the home maker is suddenly
removed while out on the firing line
maintain that home until the children
are self-supporting. This is considered better public policy, and is infinitely less costly to the taxpayers, than to let the children scatter,
be committed to institutions and farmed out generally, bereft of a mother's love and care. As it is from this class of "the wretched"
that vice and crime is generated,
which imposes one of the heaviest
burdens upon society it is better public policy to remove the cause of what
mothers' pension.

With the prompt passage of this
law that is now pending in our leg-
the Courtney mine victims would be assured of preserving their homes until the children can care for themselves and then retire.

What is termed a plan to abolish
the legislature is to be submitted to
the voters of California if a resolution just introduced for a constitutional amendment gets through, says the Pittsburg Dispatch. This is to have an elective legislature of forty
members, who sit permanently at a salary of $5,000 a year.

"The argument in support of it is
consideration, but that where forty
and all year to do in they might be expected to study measures in detail
and thrash out every phase before passing them. Residue experience
and practice would make them professionals and they would be less
likely to commit the blunders so frequent among amateur lawmaking as-semblies."

This is the commission plan, which the public is beginning to move and more look upon with approval. In
view of the experience of our own
legislature, where hundreds of unimportant bills have been passed dur-
over a period of nearly four months,
with an organized effort on the part
form of government appeals most
strongly. The trouble with representatives is that after solemnly pledg-
sent.

In all probability ten bills—possibly not that many—would cover
the people demanded at the present time of the legislature. We are getting a lot of legislation as usual,
want, and likely to get nothing that
we do want.

Those Mexicans are persistent advertisers if anything. They have

The self conscious chap is the one
son opens.

to be a remarkably skilled physician.
He may still be among the ordinary.

Speaking of peg trousers have you
noticed the peg skirts?

the income tax, this talk about its
horror is amusing.

The Washington Observer remarks:
"The Kitchen Sink was not yet cold
and now comes the Banana Slide.
Let's have the How Wallow without
delay and the list of sensuous and

with Japan and then try to get the
rest of the United States to help her
out. It isn't worth it.

Dr. Friedman's tuberculosis cure
is surely a success. He is to get $250,000 from the chief distributors
and expects $2,000,000 of a royalty
the coming year.

If the House could only get the Senate mad the State might be
saved after all. But exciting the lat-
to move to sudden action a deaf and
dumb man by whispering in his ear
that there is a fire four blocks distant.

THIRTY-SEVEN BID

FOR INSURANCE ON
COUNTY BUILDINGS

A Pittsburg man who is a member of the Mystic Shrine, attended a
lodge meeting the other night. His
small daughter watched him adjust
ran to discuss the matter with a play-
mate, the little daughter of a neighbor of her own age.

cap. That's the only hat he's goin'
to wear."

"Why ain't he goin' to wear his
regular hat?"
"Well," and the small lady quite
evidently was turning something
him tell mamma that he was goin'
tonight and wouldn't be home till
morning, and when mamma asked why he was going to wear a red cap
of fellows were goin' to travel some-
be pretty hot."

Henry, the five-year-old son of a Monessen man, had two younger
brothers. Henry's father had just
moved, and was busy laying the
kitchen linoleum. In order to facilitate the work he gave Henry the
task of furnishing him with tacks.
The little fellow worked faithfully
for half an hour. Suddenly, however, he turned to his father and
said:

"Papa you like me best, don't you?"
"O, I like all my boys," said the
father.

"But don't you like me a little bit better than the others?" queried Henry.

"I like all my boys equally well,"
answered the father.

"Well, papa," said the lad after a

DETECTIVE STORY

TOLD IN PICTURES

For a special attraction tomorrow night Manager R. S. Coyle of the Coyle Theatre has secured the great four-part mystery spectacle, "Tig-
...," the master cracksmen in a marvellous detective play. Sherlock Holmes is outdone in this film, nothing just like it ever before having been presented. Among the scenes are the underground den, a trip through the sewers, the enchanted ball room, the fight for life in the dark,
and the strangest duel ever fought.
It is a great story of the underworld
full of thrills from start to finish.

Thirty-seven bids were made for
house and jail and equipment when
be taken up by the county commissioners and Controller J. H. Moffitt
Monday, this being the second time
commissioners had awarded the insurance early in the year, but when
the question was raised by Agent
John Murray, the controller notified
the commissioners that he would in-
for bids.

But three bids were received this
$3.50 and $3.80 per $1,000, but underwriters for this (the middle)
district. The cut rate bids were at the rate of $3.50 and $3.80 per $1,000, but some of them were from companies which the commissioners had formerly rejected.

Colin McF. Reed of Washington,
was the lowest bidder by reason of
the fact he splits his bid for the $780,000 into three parts as follows:
$310,000 at $4, $115,000 at $3.50 and $355,000 at $3.50. W. G. Potter, the Washington agent bid on $85,000 of
insurance at $3.80 and the Washington County Fire Insurance company
on $50,000 at $3.50.

No agents outside of Washington
bid below the $4 flat rate. The commissioner had not reached a decision
on the question Monday night.

Several Charleroi agents bid on the $4 or board rate. The insurance had
question arose as to advertising for
placed the insurance will charge for
the time the policies were in force at
the short term rate. This would
arise who who would be responsible
for this, the county of the commissioners, who failed to advertise for
bids according to law.

The matter will probably be unreshed out by the controller and the commissioners. As the latter have
the right to reject any or all bids,
underwriters.

ing for the body of his son. He says neither of the two bodies now at the
mortuary is his son.

nessed at the mortuary and one that
caused even the most hardened spectator to turn away, occurred Monday, when 20-year-old Mary Hal-
czyn, an Austrian girl entered to
identify the body of her father, John Halczy.

The girl had just arrived the day
after the explosion from her home
in Austria. She was taken in charge by the Austrian consul at Pittsburg
and brought to Monongahela Monday.
In the mortuary she was led to the casket in which rested the body of her father. On seeing the familiar face,
she with a shriek half swooned. She
refused to be led away from the cas-
ket. After she had been quieted she
was cared for by friends who took her back to Pittsburg. After attend-
ful journey back to Austria where
family is.

Rev. John R. Burson went to Pitts-
who is at a hospital there.

Laugh and Live Long.
It has been aptly said that there is not the remotest corner of the inlet of the minute blood vessels of the human body that does not feel some wavelet from the convulsions occasioned by good hearty laughter. The life principle of the central man is shaken to its innermost depths, sending new tides of life and strength to the surface, thus materially tending to insure good health to the persons who indulge therein. The blood moves more rapidly and conveys a different impression to all the organs of the body as it visits them on that particular mystic journey when the man is laughing from that conveyed at other times. For this reason every good, hearty laugh in which a person indulges tends to lengthen his life, conveying as it does new and distinct stimulus to the vital forces.

What Wellington Was Doing
When Sir John Steell, the sculptor had the Iron Duke sitting for a statue he tried to induce him to look warlike. All his efforts were in vain, however for Wellington seemed, judging by his face, never to have heard of Waterloo or Talavera. At last Sir John lost his patience. "As I am going to make this statue of your grace," he exclaimed, "can you not tell me what you were doing before the battle of Salamanca? Were you not galloping about the field cheering on your men to deeds of valor by words and action?" "But," said the duke in evident scorn, "if you really want to model me as I was on the morning of Salamanca, then do me crawling along a ditch on my stomach with a telescope in my hand!"
